Day 02: Paris – Cognac (4 Hrs)

Cognac situated to the south of Paris, is a vineyard region which also produces Brandy. The brandy is a spirit produced by distilling wine and the ones made in Cognac are named after the region. Although only 3% of the French consume Cognac, the remaining is exported.

You will take a train from Paris in the morning, on arrival at Cognac you will be transferred to Le'Yeuse Chateaux. Situated close to the station, the hotel overlooks the Charente River. The rooms offer either river or garden views and feature antique-style furnishing and fine fabrics.

Check into the hotel. You have the evening at leisure to relax at the hotel and enjoy a wine or cognac at the hotel's bar. Overnight at hotel in Cognac. (B)

Day 03: Cognac: Day at Leisure

Today, you have the day free to explore the city of Cognac on your own. Visit the Castle Panloy situated on the edge of the Charente takes us back to the time of Louis XIV since all the furniture and architecture are exactly how it was that time. There are also parks and gardens in and around Cognac out of which you can visit the Garden of Chaigne located in the heart of the vineyards, the garden offers you the different moods of French gardening along with a magnificent view of the vineyards. Evening at Leisure. Overnight at hotel in Cognac. (B)

Day 04: Cognac: Tour of Hennessy

After breakfast, proceed to the Hennessy outlet and take a tour of the cellars led by one of their house experts. Here you would see barrels stacked up with ageing wine, you may be lucky to also see the professionals tasting wine to ensure the quality is maintained. At the end of the tour you will get to taste the Hennessy V.S and V.S.O.P Cognacs.
