Day 03: Zanzibar: Half Day Tour

Today, you have the morning at leisure. In the afternoon, proceed to the stone town on your own where you will meet your guide at the tour point. Drive past Darajani Market towards the northern neighbor hoods, passing the old Sultan Palace ruins, Zanzibar University, and the populous suburbs of Bubub. Stop at a textile workshop to see how the vibrant fabrics are dyed and turned into traditional clothing and decorative pieces. Although the textiles are rich, the workshop still functions in a very humble setting. From there head over to a local woodworking shop where beautiful traditional handicrafts are made, including the intricate carved doors prevalent in Stone Town. The route continues to one of the biggest markets in town to taste dafu, refreshing juice from a whole coconut. Explore the different sections, taking in the amazing selection of exotic local fruits and vegetables, fish, and meat. Chukwani is the last destination, passing through the wealthiest suburbs where the parliament house and expensive homes are located. Finish up with a local meal and beer at a restaurant with a breathtaking view of the ocean.

You later have the day to explore the town on your own and do some shopping. Return to hotel on your own. Overnight at hotel in Zanzibar. (B)
