Day 03: Siena: Hot Air Balloon, Self Drive to Chianti, Dinner at Local Restaurant

This morning, take in the gorgeous view of Tuscan lands. The hot air balloon will take you upto 2000feet over rolling hills, Italian villas, imposing castles and sprawling vineyards and olive gardens. Toast this experience with a glass of sparkling wine. Return to hotel for breakfast. Today, self-drive to Chianti region and explore the town, vineyards, and olive gardens. You can also get a chance to taste the wine at one of the estates (Chianti Classico being one of the wines). Tip: The gelato ice-cream is worth the try

Return to Siena. In the evening, experience an authentic Italian moment in the Tuscan countryside. Patrizia opens the doors of her beautiful villa located at a stone's throw from Siena to share with you a typical Tuscan 'aperitivo' by the pool. Enjoy the relaxed atmosphere and taste local delicacies and fine wine. Overnight at hotel in Siena. (B)

Day 04: Siena: Self-drive to Cinque terre

Cinque Terre is an area, declared World Heritage by UNESCO, where earth and sea fuse to create a unique and unforgettable landscape. The area consists of rocky coasts made of caves, beaches and paths with breathtaking landscapes. The main towns are Manarola, Vernazza, Riomaggiore, Corniglia and Monterosso. (3hrs drive per way). You can choose to visit all or a few of the towns at leisure. Overnight at hotel in Siena (B)

Day 05: Siena – Palermo

Today drive back to Florence airport, drop off your vehicle and take the flight to Palermo. Palermo a civilization on the edge of Europe, a place where you will find Arabic influenced market and Baroque churches. On arrival, pick up your vehicle and transfer to the hotel. Relax and enjoy the evening at leisure. In the evening proceed to a Spa centre for a 45mins relaxing massage. Overnight at hotel in Palermo. (B)

Day 06: Palermo: Walking tour

Today take a 3 hour tour of the street food of Palermo, the authentic art treasures and beautiful monuments of Palermo and you can browse through the street markets which represent a true mix of culture, customs and food tradition. Walk along the old Cassaro (Corso Vittorio Emanuele), see Ballarò, Capo and Vucciria markets, the oldest and most popular areas of Palermo. The richness of the artistic treasures of Palermo join the gastronomy and street food.

The walk will be an opportunity to taste some specialties from Palermo including the distinctive flavors of the street food, the "sfincione" (dough topped with onion, cheese, bread crumbs, tomato and oregano), the "panelle" (fried chickpea flour), the "crocché" (potatoes croquettes), the "arancine" stuffed with meat or butter (ball of rice stuffed), caponata (eggplants with tomatoes, capers, onions and olives) and a little cannolo (dessert filled with a cream containing ricotta). Overnight at hotel in Palermo. (B)

Day 07: Palermo – Self-drive to Cefalu and Corleone

Today you will get time to explore the nearby towns. Drive to Corlene, a charming old town in Sicily popularized by the filming of the movie "Godfather". It also has a rich archeological history you can learn more at the MuseoCivico. If you are a nature lover you can stop at the BorgottaFicuza nature reserve which lies between Palermo and Corleone.

From Corleone proceed to Cefalu, well known for its pristine beaches. Apart from the beaches, take out some time to visit the ancient laundry area. During the ancient times, women used to wash their families clothes here. You get to see the pools being filled with water and pass through narrow lanes which flow into the sea. San't Ambrogio is another place to visit, a quaint area tucked in a hill. It is 5kms from Cefalu. Return to Palermo. Overnight at hotel in Palermo. (B)
